

National Youth Council Role Description & Person Specification

What is the NYC?

- The RFU National Youth Council (NYC) is a group of 18 – 24 year olds from across the country, who act as a consultative body for the RFU at a national level. Involved in all aspects of the game, they provide youth perspective and help shape the development of the game.

What's involved?

- Work alongside RFU staff on a number of projects and working groups in different areas of the RFU structure, as identified by the NYC to support the development of the game
- Actively participate on RFU sub-committees & working groups to provide a youth perspective
- Build networks, both within and outside of RFU, to ensure work is progressed and the NYC is able to represent the voice of young people
- Ensure that identified projects are completed on time and in line with the objectives set out
- Collate and produce an annual report, detailing the progress of the previous year and future objectives for the next 12 months, with the opportunity to present to RFU council on an annual basis
- Act as an ambassador for the sport and promote the core values throughout the Game.

Who are we looking for?

- Some-one who is aged 18-24
- Understanding of, and passion for sport and/or volunteering
- Highly self-motivated and able to work under their own direction but also enjoys working as part of a team
- Excellent interpersonal skills with an ability to engage on all levels.
- Ability to analyse problems and create solutions.
- Good communication skills including report writing and delivering effective presentations.
- Ability to travel across England.

What you'll get from it?

- The opportunity to meet other people who have a passion to develop sport
- The opportunity to make a difference and help shape the future of the game
- Develop personal and professional skills
- The opportunity to enhance your CV
- Hands-on experience of project development and an opportunity to learn from others
- Networking opportunities both within England Rugby and within the national rugby volunteer network.
- Appropriate expenses for NYC related work will be reimbursed
