

Players who recognise themselves as transgender or non-binary gender should contact the RFU to discuss their specific case. Although each situation is reviewed on a case by case basis, there are eligibility criteria that apply.

This form is intended for people to apply to play in the gender category that differs from that associated with their sex assigned at birth. This form should be completed with reference to the RFU Transgender Policy, including the Eligibility Criteria set out within. The RFU Transgender Policy is available here.
